

#43B Date missing

Bill of sale for 13 acres of standing timber, Angell Hodard to Job Lane

Know all men by their present that I Angoll Hodard of Boston in new England for valuable consideration: doo sell unto Job Lane of Boston all the timber tree [hole in paper] above six inches in a lott of land laying next to Waymouth ponde on the one side and bounded with the smolt brook on the other side: which lott contains thirteenth acors: and doo promise that by my allowance so orderd: no man shall fell or medle with any timber in the sayd lott from this present day this [10?] day of [ripped away – possibly October] witness my hand

Angell Hodard

[illegible]
[illegible]