

#100 May 25, 1754

Letter to Deacon Job Lane) from his brother-in-law, Benjamin Ruggles New Braintree (accession #B627)

Loving Brother. New-Braintree: may: 25: 1754 Sir After due Respects to your self & Sister etc B627 These may signify to you that I am in usual Health: & I have heard from my family lately & they are also in Health: & I purpose to go down to middleborough in about ten days, In order to bring up my family in a short time after etc I heard from you last winter; & also since I was sorry to hear of the melancholy news of the death of your son, & I pray that God would be pleased to sanctify his bereaving providence towards you etc I had an opportunity to send you, & so was willing to improve it, though I was in hast to my Pen & ink out of order etc
 When I was at middleborough; my two eldest daughters spoke of their intending to come to Bedford & go to Billerica etc before they come up here: & I suppose they yet purpose to come in some short time after I get down to middleborough etc I should be glad to hear from you when you have an opportunity; Be pleased to Remember me to all our Relations etc yours to serve
 Benjamin Ruggles

P.S: I was installed here into office, the 14th day of April past:
 our Relations at Rochester were well lately.

(B627)

New Braintree: May: 25: 1754

Loving Brother
 Sir after due respects to your self & sister etc These may signify to you that I am in usual health: & I have heard from my family lately & they are also in health: & I purpose to go down Middleborough in about ten days, In order to bring up my family in a short time after etc----- I heard from you last winter; & also since; & was sorry to hear of the melancholy news of the death of your son, & I pray that God would be please to sanctify his bereaving providence towards you etc----- I had an opportunity to send to you, & so was willing to improve it; though I was in hast & my pen & ink out of order etc When I was at Middleborough; my two eldest daughters spoke of their intending to come to Bedford & to Billerica etc before they come up here: & I suppose they yet purpose to come in some short time after I git down to Middleborough etc ----- I should be glad to hear from you when you have an opportunity; Be pleased to

The Lane Family Papers

Bedford Historical Society remember me to all our relations & yours to serve

Benjamin Ruggles

PS: I was installed here into office, the 17th day of April past:

Our relations at Rochester were well lately: