

#152 May 30, 1752

Letter from Spooner

Mess^{rs}+ Job & John Lane
May 1752

London 30th

Gentlemen

I did myself the pleasure to write you a few lines the 8 ultimo Since I am not favoured with any from you; The present Serves only to hand you abstract of your Account Currant with Bourryan & Spooner to the 24 March Past, Balance due to them £10.3.11 Sterling, conveyed to you debite, on a new Account with me, which finding right please note accordingly.-----

I shall always be glad to receive your commands being -----

Sirs

Your most obed humb Serv^t
Hung^d Spooner