

#160 June 6, 1761

Letter from Lane & Booth

p[er] Capt Diamond

Mess^{rs} Job & John Lane
Gentlemen

London 6th June 1761

We received your favour of the 21nd Jan^y inclosing your letter for M^r John Dickinson of Beverly, which we forwarded to him, and in compliance therewith he has remitted us a bill & £28.10 for your account which is accepted and shall be placed to your Credit in course.

Your letter of the 23 May of which you have sent us Copy never reached our hands---

By Capt Jacobson who is loading for your Port, we shall find you the Articles you write for & in the interim we remain

Sirs

Your most hum Serv^{ts}
Lane & Booth

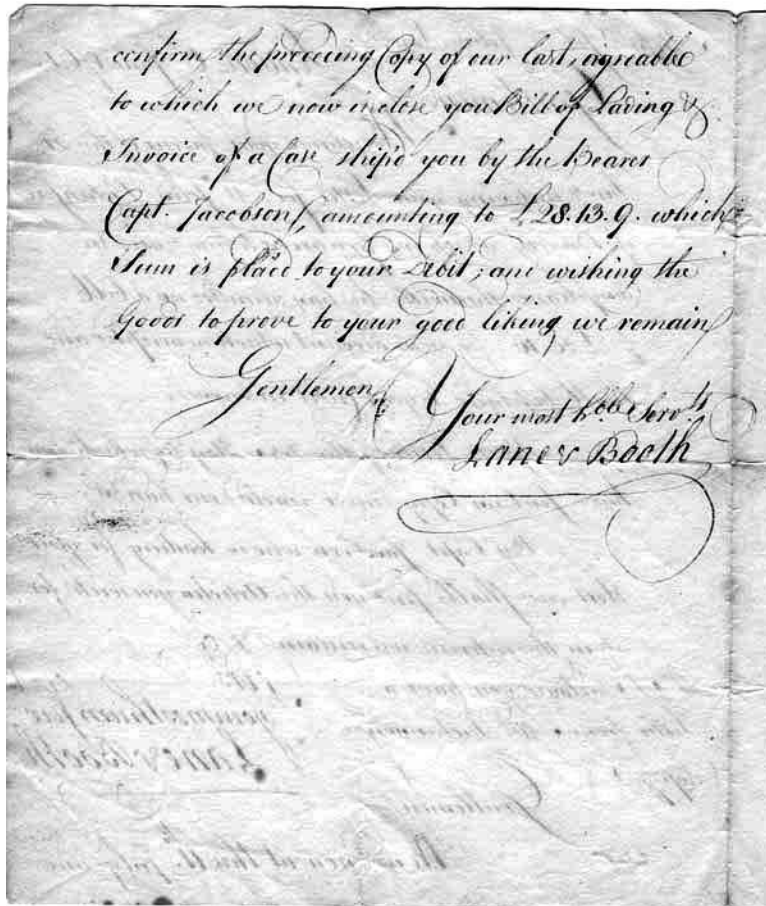

P.S. Inclosed you have a letter from M^r Dickinson
(Copy)

Gentlemen,

We are now at the 11th July and

The Lane Family Papers

Bedford Historical Society

confirm the preceding copy of our last, agreeable to which we now inclose you Bill of Lading & Invoice of a Case Ship'd you by the Bearer Capt. Jacobson, amounting to £28.13.9. which sum is placed to your Debit; and wishing the goods to prove to your good liking, we remain

Gentlemen

Your most h^{ble} Serv^{ts}

Lane & Booth