

#176 May 29, 1766

Notice from Stephen Davis, Town Clerk to Job Lane, Surveyor of Highways

Middlesex
 To Mr Job Lane a Surveyor of Highways in and for the Town of Bedford, or his Successor in said Office Greeting
 You are hereby Required in His Majesty's Name to Levy & Collect of the Several persons named in the List herewith Committed unto you, of each one his respective proportion therein set down by carrying them to work on the Highways within the Limits where unto you are appointed, giving them Lawful warning thereof, and allowing for a man two Shillings per day till the last day of September, and in the Remainder of the year, one Shilling per day; and for a yoke of Oxen one Shilling per day, & for a Cart four pence per day through the year, allowing also those their Credit Set in your sd List that over-worked last year. — and see that you keep just Accounts, and cause no person to be over-charged. — Hereof fail not, and make Return of your said List with your doings thereon unto the Assessor the Subscribers thereof, by the last day of January next.
 Dated in Bedford afores^d the 29th day of May AD 1766.
 In the Name & by Order of the Assessors —
 Step. Davis Town Clerk

Middlesex

To M^r Job Lane a Surveyor of Highways in and for the Town of Bedford, or his successor in said Office Greeting

You are hereby required in His Majesty's Name to Levy & collect of the several persons named in the list herewith Committed unto you, of each one his respective proportion therein set down by carrying them to work on the Highways within the Limits where unto you are appointed giving them Lawful warning thereof, and allowing for a man two shillings per day till the last day of September, and in the Remainder of the year, one shilling per day; and for a yoke of oxen one shilling per day, & for a cart four pence per day through the year, allowing also those their credit Set in your pd List that over-worked last year. ---and see that you keep just accounts and cause no person to be overcharged. Hereof fail not, and make return of your said list with your doing, thereon unto the Assessor the subscribers thereof by the last day of January next.

Dated in Bedford afores^d the 29th day of May AD 1766

In the name & by the order of the Assessor
 Step. Davis Town Clerk