

Deacon Job Lane (3), Series V. Indenture

ID #	Date	Description	Comments
117	March 25, 1756	Indenture between John Fassett and his guardian Benjamin Reed, both of Lexington, and Job Lane of Bedford	A fatherless boy becomes Job Lane's servant for a period of five years in exchange for room, board, clothing, and instruction in the business of farming

Deacon Job Lane (3), Series VI. Wills and Estate Division

ID #	Date	Description	Comments
118	4 Dec. 1736 27 Jan. 1747	Lists of property given to Mary Lane by ? and to Martha Whitmore by her father	Not sure how this is connected to Job Lane, if at all. Mary and Martha receive furniture, housewares, fabric, and other useful housekeeping needs
119	February 15, 1753	Will of Job Lane with bequests to Mary, his wife, children Job, John, Timothy, Benjamin (my mansion house) (Benjamin dies 1754), Martha, Mary and Lucy Lane	This will was apparently replaced by a later one drawn up shortly before Job's death in 1762
109	1762-63	Accounting statement to Job, John, and Timothy Lane	Summary of business done by an unidentified person on behalf of Deacon Job Lane's sons in the two years following his death
