

Deacon Job Lane (3), Series IV. Land Transactions

ID #	Date	Description	Comments
111	February 15, 1724	Deed , Timothy Farley to Job Lane	Farley sells 17 acres of land to Job Lane
112	December 23, 1734	Deed , Zachariah Fitch to Job Lane	Fitch sells 16 acres of land to Job Lane
113	May 2, 1737	Deed , John Mansfield to Job Lane	Mansfield sells a "mansion house," barn, and 31 acres of land in Bedford to Job Lane
114	January 21, 1741	Deed , Benjamin Fitch to Job Lane	Benjamin Fitch, the miller and his wife Miriam, a.k.a. "The Witch of the Shawsheen," sell 8 acres to Deacon Job Lane
115	June 24, 1746	Deed , Job 3 Lane to Job 4 Lane	Deacon Job gives his son fifty acres of land as an advance on his inheritance
116	May 21, 1717	Agreement for division of Samuel Ruggles' land	The heirs of Samuel Ruggles--Josiah Newton, Joseph Stevens, Benjamin Ruggles, Job Lane, and John Holbrook--agree to divide his land in Hardwick, Mass.
217	January 22, 1745	Agreement on division of Samuel Fitch's property	After Samuel Fitch (a grandson and heir of Job 1 Lane) dies without leaving a will, his heirs agree how to divide his land among themselves; the heirs include four of his sons as well as Job (3 or 4?) Lane