“The Preservationist”

Our quarterly, printed newsletter is filled with historic photos, informative articles, special features, and program reminders. The September issue is printed in full color and delivered to all Bedford residents, about 6,300 households. The remaining issues are printed each year in black and white and delivered to our mailing list of about 400 households. Ad sizes include 1/4, 1/8, and 1/16 of a 8.5”x11” page.

Member Yearbook

The member yearbook includes a listing of all members along with a detailed description of our yearly program and lecture series. It is mailed to all members, about 250 households. Ad sizes include a full, 1/2, and 1/4 of a 8.5”x5.5” page.

Email Newsletter

Our email newsletter includes program reminders, event updates, and fun historical articles such as “History Mystery,” and “Today in History.” It is emailed at least two times a month and is received by about 300 supporters and members. Sponsor logos appear in color.

Website

Our website is a destination for anyone interested in Bedford history. In addition to our online catalogue, research resources, and newsletters, visitors will be able to view your name and logo on our “Sponsors” page. Please visit us at www.bedfordmahistory.org.

Historical Lectures and Walking Tours

Join our staff and knowledgeable volunteers for a walking tour or a lecture on a variety of historical topics. Treat your staff or customers to a private tour or walk. We are happy to accommodate groups of all sizes and interests.
